RESIDENT HERE NAMED DEFENDANT IN SUIT FILED

John Baker, Jackson St., Named In Two Count Action

RESULT OF A CRASH

Resident Of Red Hill Is Also Named In Another Suit

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 9.—A Bristol resident, John Baker, 352 Jackson street, is the defendant in a two count action in trespass by Frank A. Bahr and Frank E. Bahr, Sunset and Walnut avenues, Croydon Manor.

The suit has been filed in the Court of Common Pleas.

According to the statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, the one complainant, Frank A. Bahr is suing for $5,000.

The car, which figured in the collision with the defendant's car May 9, 1948, at Bristol pike and Belmont avenue in Croydon, was owned by Frank A. Bahr who estimated the damages were $761.07.

Frank E. Bahr, who was driving the car is suing for $5,000.

A resident of Red Hill, Montgomery county, near Pennsburg and East Greenville, Arthur L. Martin, 152 Main street, Red Hill, a two-count action in trespass by Frank S. Derr and Louise M. Derr, Franklin, Pennsburg, RD 1.

The collision happened Oct. 9, 1948, on Almost rd., near Sellersville. Frank S. Derr is claiming $13,47, and his wife, Louise is claiming $5,000 plus a doctor's and hospital bill of $65.50.

Walter E. Barndt, of the Quaker-town area, has been named by his wife, Betty M. Barndt, in an action in divorce.

Realtors Propose Some Revision in By-Laws

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 9.—When members of Bucks County Real Estate Board assembled for their first meeting of the fall season, last evening, some time was devoted to proposed revision of the constitution and by-laws. Chairman of this committee is William H. Fetter, Morrisville.

A session of the board of directors preceded the dinner meeting in the Fountain House. In the absence of Arlington Myers, president, J. Carroll Malloy, first vice-president, presided.

Discussion ensued regarding the annual convention of Penna. Real Estate Board, to take place at Reading, September 28, 29, 30, and October 1st. Approximately 10 or 12 Bucks Countians plan to be present.

Consideration was also given to observance of Pennsylvania Week, this matter being referred to the proper committee.

Another Case of "Polio" Reported in County

CHURCHVILLE, Sept. 9.—Polio has hit Bucks county again, raising the toll to six cases reported.

Donna White, 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, of near here, was taken ill on Sunday with suspicious symptoms. She was removed Tuesday night to the Abington Hospital, where she was found to have her back and lower extremities affected.

Today, the isolation ward of the hospital reported the baby is coming along as well as can be expected. Her right leg is paralyzed, but her left leg seems to respond, officials said, to the therapy applied.

Wife Finds E. M. Love Dead of Heart Attack

WRIGHTSTOWN, Sept. 9.—Earliest M. Love was found dead in bed yesterday morning when his wife, Pauline, arrived at his bedside after preparing their children for school. Mr. Love was 53 years of age. The Love family resides on Newtown-Doylestown Pike, near the Anchor Hotel.

Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby, Cornwells Heights, issued a certificate giving a heart attack as cause of death.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Love is survived by a daughter, Ernestine, a son, Hardy W. Love, and a brother, Chester, the latter of Newshamby Falls. The deceased was employed by Warner Steel, Bristol.

Service will be conducted by Joseph Wengert, of Kingdom Hall, Davierville, Monday at two p. m., at the R. L. Horner funeral home, Langhorne. Burial is to be made in Evergreen Memorial Park, Bensalem township. Friends may call Sunday evening.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The United States rejected yesterday a British proposal in the Washington talks on the dollar crisis to waive the British-American loan clause barring discrimination against imports from this country. The way was left open, however, for specific exceptions to help Britain bridge the dollar gap. The conference named several working groups for particular problems.

Labor in both countries moved to help the statesmen. The British Trades Union Congress reaffirmed its policy of moderation in wage demands. The AFL sent a ten-point program to Washington urging concessions on both sides.

European experts felt that insistence upon full employment at all costs was a major factor in the current economic crisis. The United States, by cutting the German mark's tie to the dollar, made possible a $300,000,000 free-trade agreement between the Netherlands and Western Germany.

The Export-Import Bank approved a $20,000,000 loan to Yugoslavia for the repair of industries. Observers stressed the political significance of the loan. Poland accused Yugoslavia of having destroyed their treaty of mutual aid and friendship, and a Communist leader in Trieste detailed plans for overthrowing Marshal Tito by all means short of formal war.

Seventy per cent of the Roman Catholic clergy in Czechoslovakia was said to have rejected the Government's church-control program.

Hope for a united Korea is becoming "more and more remote," a United Nations commission reported, and "barbarous civil war" may result. The commission criticized both North and South Korea. Japan banned four Korean organizations for "anti-democratic and terrorist" activity.

The American Bar Association rejected in its present form the United Nations convention outlawing genocide.

The State Department expressed concern over efforts of a "minority political group" to overthrow the Bolivian Government.

President Truman named Robert D. Murphy to be Ambassador to Belgium and said he would appoint Stanton Griffis to succeed former Ambassador Bruce in Argentina.

The President said that the Labor Day speech in which he attacked "fisher interests" marked the opening of the 1950 Congressional campaign. He indicated he would campaign this fall, if necessary, for former Governor Lehman.

Government sources reported that employment and business activity had started upward after a summer slump.

The liquor that was declared forfeited by Judge Keller will be allotted to various Bucks county hospitals, after a petition has been presented to the court by District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, enumerating the institutions that need the liquor.

Davis was in the court house and assured the State's representative as well as District Attorney Curtin that he did not care to contest this last official step by the State to forfeit the liquor.

The other matter before the court is a continued hearing in the application of Edward A. Colligan and Amanda Colligan for a liquor license for their well-known Cuttossa Inn, on the River Road, in Davis, formerly resident of East Court street, Doylestown. Davis at one time operated an inn at Dublin, and was prosecuted in the county court here following raids on his place of business and his apartment.

The matter comes before the court this time in the form of an appeal from the decision of the Liquor Control Board, and Judge Keller is being asked to approve the granting of a license on the grounds that the inn is located in a resort area.

HI, THERE, SUGAR!

With a title like that at the head of this piece, we thought maybe we'd stop a few of our feminine readers who don't usually read editorials. But we are not making a pass at you, lady. What we're going to talk about is for your own good. So kindly get into your homemaking, or house dress, mood — as distinguished from your romantic mood — and bend an ear.

The sugar in question is the sweetness in a good cantaloupe. You know how much of a gamble it is to buy cantaloupes. You can smell 'em, you can gauge the color, you can press gently on the place where the blossom dropped off. But still you get fooled. Maybe we should say disappointed. Anybody who tries to fool a housewife into buying something she won't like is just a plain fool himself. The seller simply has no positive way of determining if a melon is sweet or not.

Now it's beginning to look as if the great gamble is going to be eliminated. The Maryland Department of Markets has been testing cantaloupes for their sugar content. By scientific means the testers sampled the melons and labeled them as "fancy," "choice," or "good."

We hope the plan works. We're not going to come out against sniffing and pressing cantaloupes. Label or not, you ladies are going to do that anyway. Right?

WAR OF NERVES

They say it's a "war of nerves" that the Soviet and Yugoslavia are waging and as long as it stays that way there is no great reason for concern. Of course the possibility always exists that some incident will touch off the guns but it is doubtful that either nation wants actual conflict.

Their reasons, however, are not identical. In the case of the Yugoslavs it is a matter of caution and self-preservation. They know that they lack the forces to stand up successfully against the Soviet's enormous and well-trained army. The result of war for them would not only be complete defeat but the very subjection to Moscow rule which they are trying to avoid. It would be the end of even the shadow of national independence.

The Russians must move slowly because military attack on their part would destroy the pretense, elaborately built up by communist propaganda, that the Soviet is the one country in the world that is genuinely interested in promoting peace. It would cut all the ground from under the feet of Stalin and Vichinsky and of the Wallaces, Robesons, and other pro-Russians in the United States.

So there is at least a basis for hoping that the Balkan controversy will not reach the final and deadly phase. If it does the consequences for the rest of Europe and for America, too, could be tragic in the extreme.

ST. ANN'S TO HOLD A SCRIMMAGE AT FORT MONMOUTH

The St. Ann's A. A. football team will hold an important scrimmage with the Fort Monmouth eleven Sunday afternoon at Fort Monmouth. Football players are requested to report at the clubhouse, Wood street, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Coach Dominic Sagolla and his assistant, Joe Roe, have been drilling the St. Ann's candidates for the past three weeks and believe that the lads are in condition for a real hard scrimmage which the soldiers intend to furnish.

During the past week, Assistant Coach Roe has been handling the backfield, using the "T" formation. It is now believed that in some games, the Purple and Gold will use the "T" while in others, the single wing back will be used.

Coach Roe in his handling of teams for the past few years has always used the "T" formation and the "Saints" have one of the best ball handlers for this formation in Joe Elmer. Coach Sagolla, who also coaches at Council Rock High School, is an expert with the single-wing formation.

The "Saints" open their Northeast Conference League games on September 25th. Their opponents will be the Olney Vets. It was previously announced that Ditman A. A. would be the opposing team but according to Athletic Director John Scordia, this has been changed.

In the meantime, the St. Ann's management is attempting to arrange an independent game for Sunday, September 18th.

The Wood Streeters will play their home games on Memorial Park field.

Some fresh vegetables used by the Thompsons were grown at the "hydroponic farm." There no soil was used—only water and chemicals. "However, that activity is still in an experimental stage" Mrs. Thompson remarked. Cucumbers, tomatoes, etc., grown in this manner, added to the variety in diet.

The Thompsons, although located at Tokyo, on the island of Honshu (the largest of the four islands making up Japan), found time to visit Kyushu also. The four islands could all be placed in the state of California, they remind, but population is about 90,000,000. It is easy to see why land is at a premium, and this fact impresses all visitors. To make use of every available spot, many hillsides and mountainsides are terraced to bring in the largest possible crops. However, with the land not of sufficient area to provide sustenance for the populace, much of the food is imported.

"Japan is beautiful and fascinating" commented Mrs. Thompson as she mentioned the inland seas, the coastlines, and the mountainous areas. She was privileged to attend a cherry blossom festival held in one of the gardens of the emperor at a distance from the palace. There ancient Bakaku dances were performed by men dressed in elaborate costumes of brocades and cloth of gold. This performance, to orchestra accompaniment, continued for two hours. The visitor to the Orient also witnessed several Kabuki plays—a traditional form of Japanese entertainment upon arrival at a Japanese New Year's feast 12 women in the party were provided with kimonos and obis to wear for the duration of the function. Courses were numerous, and were served at individual tables. "I liked the tasty and unusual dishes" says Mrs. Thompson who remembers with pleasure the dancing of the Geisha girls to oriental music. She attended one ceremonial tea during her stay.

As far as recreation was concerned, the Thompsons report that fine hotels of Japan provided rest places for occupation troops; and entertainment available includes golfing on excellent courses, swimming in large and modern pools, saddle trips from various riding schools, etc.

A trip to Hiroshima revealed that at Tokyo, on the island of Honshu (the largest of the four islands making up Japan), found time to visit Kyushu also. public notice that at its meeting Monday evening council will consider the adoption of the ordinance. "The ordinance is designed to promote the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the borough," according to council, and "the ordinance proposes to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories and size of buildings and other structures; their construction, alteration, extension, repair and maintenance; and all facilities and services in and about such buildings and structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied; the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces; the density of population; and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence and other purposes. The ordinance also proposes to establish and maintain building lines and setback building lines on all public roads and highways and to provide for division of the Borough into certain districts and for uniform regulations for each class or kind of buildings throughout each district."

Mrs. Thompson made the trip from Seattle to Japan by ship when she joined her husband there; and the two returned by ship to San Francisco. Leaving the train at Flint, Mich., they secured a new automobile and drove in that to Pennsylvania.

Schools To Promote Thrift For Pupils

five. It is not necessary that boys and girls deposit money each week, though regular saving is definitely encouraged. When an amount of $10 has been deposited a regular bank book is issued and the money begins drawing interest; preceding this deposits are recorded by means of punched cards, one of which is kept in the bank at all times, and the other used in the school for recording of deposits. Each depositor is obligated to witness the teacher record the deposit he is making on a deposit summary sheet and on the white card punched by the bank. Any time that a parent wishes to know the total amount his boy or girl has deposited he may request the homeroom teacher to send home such form, but the cards are kept in the school to facilitate the whole banking system.

Withdrawal may be made only on exceptional occasions or when a pupil withdraws from Bristol Township School District. Any withdrawal must be signed by the parent or guardian and a designated school authority.

A chart showing the number of depositors in each homeroom will be displayed in the corridor of the school. Also on the day following banking, there will be distributed in the school a table showing percentage of depositors for each room and total amount deposited in the entire school. From this, a comparison of interest in the thrift by homeroom may be made.

The homeroom having the highest percentage of depositors on the first banking day will have the honor of selecting the boy or girl in the school responsible for marking and distributing all charts and tables.

Last year in the few weeks of organized banking in the school more than 30% of the school population had become depositors, and about $1,000 had been saved. It is the hope of the school that the number of depositors may be more than doubled next Tuesday when banking begins for this school year, and that the home and school through

Revise Downward Blast-Fire Loss, States Property

The tank truck of the Atlantic Refining Company, from which gasoline was being transferred to the States bulk tank when the explosion occurred, was the object of much interest, not only of officials but of countless residents of lower Bucks County who drove to the place throughout the afternoon and evening. Half of the truck was melted away. Julian Bley, Bristol driver of the truck, escaped injury, he being enroute to the office near by when the blast occurred, shooting flames into the air and filling the area with dense, black smoke. Others who escaped injury, and who were in the shop or garage at the time are: Mr. States, and three members—Alwyn Gouger, Elmer Blankley, and "Tim" Madison. They were able to get some stock to safety.

Bucks County fire marshal Robert Graham, of Chalfont, arrived on the scene yesterday afternoon, and also present to check details of the blast and fire was assistant Bucks Co. fire marshal for this area, William Dettemer. In addition there were agents from firms insuring individuals for whom hauling is done by the States firm.

Complete service is being continued to his customers, States informs, his fleet of 65 units being sufficient to cover the emergency. No definite plans have been outlined as yet for re-building. "We are still busy checking over the damage done," adds States.

Slight cut was sustained by Edward Dyer, one of the firemen; and slight cut on the shoulder by Mr. States.

Montgomery County "Second Alarmers Association" had a canter truck at the scene yesterday from which the firemen were served.

num, at a previous hearing, stated that the premises applying for a liquor license, meets all requirements, and that the only question is that it is within an area which is restricted by the quota law, and whether an exception can be granted because of it being a resort area.

The first witness called was Pat Hurley, of Solebury township, director of the Bucks County Information Council, with offices in New Hope. His testimony tended to prove that the area in which the inn is located, and most of Solebury township, for that matter, is an outstanding resort area that annually attracts thousands of people from all parts of the country.

The court will file an opinion on the appeal.

BY JOE ELBRESON

Meeting . . . members of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will meet next Tuesday evening, September 13, at 8 o'clock, at the American Legion Post Home, Radcliffe street. It will be a business session with emphasis on completion of plans for the Association's annual outing which is scheduled for September 25. All interested sportsmen have a cordial invitation to attend the meeting.

Lots of fish . . . nine of us landed 200 sea bass, blue fish and flounder when we fished the bay out of Beach Haven Terrace (after trolling and bottom fishing outside) last Sunday.

The above statement is absolutely correct, but it loses its punch when it is amplified. Here is the breakdown: 197 bass (from 3 to 16 inches in length); 2 blues; and 1 flounder.

It was, however, a wonderful trip—bright sunshine, a calm bay, just slight swells outside, and plenty of fellowship and fun.

The "number one" amateur in the party, Paul Brown, took the ship's pool with the flounder. This was one of the four fish he landed all day.

Honors for the most fish caught went to Mrs. Ralph Ratcliffe, only feminine angler aboard. And in spite of the fact that she was gracious enough to allow all the men to start fishing before she cast her line over, she still caught the first fish!

We all shared in an unusual experience when a nearby boat spotted and killed a huge tropical sunfish. Its weight was estimated at more than 300 pounds.

In our party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ratcliffe, Arthur Hornberger, Harry Ratcliffe (our skipper), Ray Elberson, John Johnson and his son Russell, and Paul Brown.

Notes . . . only eight clubs were represented when the September meeting of the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs was held in Doylestown Monday evening (Labor Day).

Routine business and short committee reports consumed most of the meeting time . . .

The Federation agreed to appeal to the Department of Forests and Waters for continued maintenance and improvement to the Canal from Easton to Bristol . . .

The following clubs were represented: Bristol, Bucks County, Conestoga, Edgely, Erwinna, New Hope, Paletown and Springtown.

Recapitulation . . . here is the final report on the distribution of the pheasants raised this year for the Bristol and Edgely clubs:

There was a total of 168 birds (84 to Bristol and 84 to Edgely) which were released on August 28. All birds were in very fine condition. All were released on open hunting territory in Bensalem and Bristol Townships. Ratio of sex was approximately 4 cocks to three hens.

Good hunting . . . Missouri sportsmen bagged 2,200,272 quail, 4,086,331 rabbits and 2,292,449 squirrels last year. That's a lot of shooting.

Unique hunting . . . Joe Haines, Edgely big game hunter, who recently returned from a trip to Wellsboro, Pa., called my attention to a news story which appeared in a newspaper of that community, "The Wellsboro Agitator," concerning rattlesnake hunting.

It appears that two local banks in that town instituted a bounty program of $1.00 per rattlesnake for all rattlers killed in Tioga County.

The idea apparently took hold at once for up to the end of August a total of 971 rattlesnakes were killed in that county.

One man is far ahead of the hunters for the most killed with a total of 223 rattlers to his credit. His closest competitor, according to the news story, has a total of 107. Largest snake killed so far is a 59-inch black rattlesnake.

Certainly this type of hunting is unusual and it must be quite a thrill to go out and get a bag full of rattlesnakes. Personally, however, upland game shooting appeals to me more.

Meeting . . . the Newportville Rod & Gun Club will meet Monday, September 12, at 7:30 p.m., in the club house, Haunted Lane, Eddington. Sport movies are scheduled and members are invited to bring their friends.

CROWD WATCHES
HIGH SCHOOL GRID
TEAM PRACTICE

A large crowd was on hand at the Bristol High school last night to watch the 1949 edition of the Warriors' football team go through a two-hour practice session.

Coaches Harry McClister and Jerry Bloom used up most of the time for the running of plays and defensive work. The boys really worked in earnest and were tackling viciously. "Bill" Moll and "Al" Daniel made several nice runs during the practice session while there was also some beautiful blocking exhibited.

The first casualty of the season took place before the scrimmage when George Wren made a quick turn to avoid striking the fence and in the meantime his foot was caught. It is believed that in making his turn, Wren pulled a muscle in his side. He was taken to the office of Dr. Vincent Romano for treatment.

Bristol has just one more week of practice before opening its season at Hatboro next Saturday. On Friday night, September 23rd, the Bristol team meets Trenton Catholic under the lights on the home field.

FRANKLIN TO PLAY SECOND WARD TEAM

The second game of the final playoffs of the Bristol Suburban Softball League between Franklin A. C. and Second Ward will be played this evening on Memorial Park field starting at six o'clock.

The Franklin team blanked Second Ward, 4-0, to capture the first tilt and if successful in winning this evening will be crowned the playoff champions for the season of 1949. Second Ward won the regular season championship.

In an effort to deadlock the series, Manager "Lou" Angelo, of the Warders, will send his ace, "Chick" Stansky to the hill. Stansky held Franklin to two hits in the initial game but still was beaten due to faulty playing.

Manager Anthony Capello, of the Franklin Club, has his choice of "Reggie" Gerome or "Jim" Brescia whitewashed the Warders in the first game and there is a likelihood that he will again be sent to the mound as Gerome is nursing a wounded hand which he cut at his place of employment.

There will be no change in the remainder of the lineups. Franklin will start Frank Barbetta, Fred Field, Art Massi, "Toby" Oriola, Bert Barbetta, Capello, Tom Kerwick, William Wallack, and Fred Ciotti with Second Ward starting Gene Mount, Sam Sottille, Gene Barbetta, Tony Palumbo, "Jim" Sottille, Cornelius Chichiletti, Michael Angelo, Frank Sagolla, and Leo Fiorelli.

RESIDENT HERE NAMED DEFENDANT IN SUIT FILED

RESULT OF A CRASH

Resident Of Red Hill Is Also Named In Another Suit

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 9 — A Bristol resident, John Baker, 352 Jackson street, is the defendant in a two count action in trespass by Frank A. Bahr and Frank E. Bahr, Sunset and Walnut avenues, Croydon Manor.

The suit has been filed in the Court of Common Pleas.

According to the statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, the one complainant, Frank A. Bahr is suing for $5,000.

The car, which figured in the collision with the defendant's car May 9, 1948, at Bristol pike and Belmont avenue in Croydon, was owned by Frank A. Bahr who estimated the damages were $761.07.

Frank E. Bahr, who was driving the car is suing for $5,000.

A resident of Red Hill, Montgomery county, near Pennsburg and East Greenville, Arthur L. Martin, 152 Main street, Red Hill, a two-count action in trespass by Frank S. Derr and Louise M. Derr, Franklin, Pennsburg, RD 1.

The collision happened Oct. 9, 1948, on Almond rd, near Sellersville. Frank S. Derr is claiming $131.47, and his wife, Louise is claiming $5,000 plus a doctor's and hospital bill of $65.50.

Walter E. Barndt, of the Quaker-town area, has been named by his wife, Betty M. Barndt, in an action in divorce.

Realtors Propose Some Revision in By-Laws

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 9 — When members of Bucks County Real Estate Board assembled for their first meeting of the fall season, last evening, some time was devoted to proposed revision of the constitution and by-laws. Chairman of this committee is William H. Fetter, Morrisville.

A session of the board of directors preceded the dinner meeting in the Fountain House. In the absence of Arlington Myers, president, J. Carroll Malloy, first vice-president, presided.

Discussion ensued regarding the annual convention of Penna. Real Estate Board, to take place at Reading, September 28, 29, 30, and October 1st. Approximately 10 or 12 Bucks Countians plan to be present.

Consideration was also given to observance of Pennsylvania Week, this matter being referred to the proper committee.

Another Case of "Polio" Reported in County

CHURCHVILLE, Sept. 9 — Polio has hit Bucks county again, raising the toll to six cases reported.

Donna White, 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, of near here, was taken ill on Sunday with suspicious symptoms. She was removed Tuesday night to the Abington Hospital, where she was found to have her back and lower extremities affected.

Today, the isolation ward of the hospital reported the baby is coming along as well as can be expected. Her right leg is paralyzed, but her left leg seems to respond, officials said, to the therapy applied.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The United States rejected yesterday a British proposal in the Washington talks on the dollar crisis to waive the British-American loan clause barring discrimination against imports from this country. The way was left open, however, for specific exceptions to help Britain bridge the dollar gap.

The conference named several working groups for particular problems.

Labor in both countries moved to help the statesmen. The British Trades Union Congress reaffirmed a policy of moderation in wage demands. The AFL sent a ten-point program to Washington urging concessions on both sides.

European experts felt that insistence upon full employment at all costs was a major factor in the current economic crisis. The United States, by cutting the German mark's tie to the dollar, made possible a $300,000,000 free-trade agreement between the Netherlands and Western Germany.

The Export-Import Bank approved a $20,000,000 loan to Yugoslavia for the repair of industries. Observers stressed the political significance of the loan. Poland accused Yugoslavia of having destroyed their treaty of mutual aid and friendship, and a Communist leader in Trieste detailed plans for overthrowing Marshal Tito by all

Wife Finds E. M. Love Dead of Heart Attack

WRIGHTSTOWN, Sept. 9 — Ernest M. Love was found dead in bed yesterday morning when his wife, Pauline, arrived at his bedside after preparing their children for school. Mr. Love was 53 years of age. The Love family resides on Newtown-Doylestown Pike, near the Anchor Hotel.

Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby, Cornwells Heights, issued a certificate giving a heart attack as cause of death.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Love is survived by a daughter, Ernestine, a son, Hardy W. Love, and a brother, Chester, the latter of Neeshaminy Falls. The deceased was employed by Warner Steel, Bristol.

Service will be conducted by Joseph Wengert, of Kingdom Hall, Davisville, Monday at two p. m., at the R. L. Horner funeral home, Langhorne. Burial is to be made in Evergreen Memorial Park, Bensalem township. Friends may call Sunday evening.

BRILLIANCE OF SEPTEMBER FLOWERS ADMIRE AT LANGHORNE COMMUNITY SHOW; SWEEPSTAKES WINNER IS MRS. E. M. LINFORTH, HULMEVILLE

LANGHORNE, Sept. 9 — The brilliance of September — reds, oranges and yellows of the flower world made a striking array in Langhorne Library yesterday as residents of this community and surrounding area gathered there to witness the community flower show. The function, sponsored by the garden committees of Langhorne Sorosis and Junior Sorosis, brought to one spot the best of gardens of this part of lower Bucks County to offer — and the show was pronounced outstanding.

The visitors admired those blooms entered in the 22 scheduled artistic arrangement classes; and exclaimed over those entered in several other classes for perfection of bloom.

Sweepstakes prize, a rose bush, was won by Mrs. Edward M. Linforth, Hulmeville. First and second prizes in each class were tulip bulbs.

Individuals placed as follows:

ARTISTIC ARRANGEMENT

LIFE IN ORIENT IS THOROUGHLY ENJOYED

"BEAUTIFUL ISLANDS"

NEWPORTVILLE, Sept. 9 — Recently back from Tokyo, Japan, Capt. Howard Thompson and Mrs. Thompson (nee Laura Cameron) have been kept busy by their relatives and friends telling of life in the Orient with the American occupation forces.

Outstanding in the memory of Mrs. Thompson, when she recalls her two years overseas, are visions of cherry blossoms in profusion; the intricate and beautiful art work, especially that hand-carved from wood; ceremonial tea-time; and traditional Japanese plays.

She was greatly impressed with the morale of the Japanese people. "They don't want to see the American occupation forces leave; and they seem so willing to do all that is required of them. I felt they did all asked of them in a most willing manner, and there was a feeling of good will everywhere."

By the time most milk reached the Thompsons it had truly come from what was termed the "mechanical cow" — powdered milk shipped from the states having been mixed by machine methods at a large plant, then distributed in cardboard cartons. Ofttimes milk would be purchased in frozen form. "We had food in great variety and in abundance" she states. The Thompsons, like others of the occupation group, had the advantage of securing foods, etc., at the army commissaries.

As regards their duplex house, they found it most comfortable and convenient. The furniture was American style, with living-room pieces being of the over-stuffed type. But all furniture was made in Japanese factories, and this as well as the other household items and the house itself were provided by the Japanese government.

They were sold for 25c each which included cleaning of the fish.

SEIZED LIQUOR TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONG HOSPITALS IN BUCKS COUNTY

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 9 — Two matters of business were presented in court here yesterday before District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, enumerating the institutions that need the liquor.

Davis was in the court house and assured the State's representative as well as District Attorney Curtin that he did not care to contest this last official step by the State to forfeit the liquor.

The other matter before the court is a continued hearing in the application of Edward A. Colligan and Amanda Colligan for a liquor license for their well-known Cuttlossa Inn, on the River Road, in Solebury township.

The matter comes before the court this time in the form of an appeal from the decision of the Liquor Control Board, and Judge Keller is being asked to approve the granting of a license on the grounds that the inn is located in a resort area.

The liquor that was declared forfeited by Judge Keller will be allotted to various Bucks county hospitals, after a petition has been Continued on Page Four

Illustrated Talk Enjoyed By Rotarians

An illustrated lecture on Bristol, England, and other sections of the British Empire, was given by R. Harvey Hulse, Trenton accountant, when he showed colored pictures to Rotarians at the Elks' Home yesterday afternoon.

Hulse, who served with a payroll division of the U. S. Army during the recent war, took the pictures while he was in the service during 1944 and 1945. They included panoramic views, homes, churches, schools, rivers, bridges, gardens and street scenes. Other slides graphically portrayed bomb damage incurred during the war.

Several interesting slides of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Camp Kilmer, N. J. were also presented.

Visitors were present for the meeting from Washington Crossing, Morrisville and Bordentown, N. J. with President William J. Begley in charge.

Hi, THERE, SUGAR!

With a title like that at the head of this piece, we thought maybe we'd stop a few of our feminine readers who don't usually read editorials. But we are not making a pass at you, lady. What we're going to talk about it for your own good. So kindly get into your homemaking, or housewifery, mood — as distinguished from your romantic mood — and bend an ear.

The sugar in question is the sweetness in a good cantaloupe. You know how much of a gamble it is to buy cantaloupes. You can smell 'em, you can gauge the color, you can press gently on the place where the blossom dropped off. But still you get fooled. Maybe we should say disappointed. Anybody who tries to fool a housewife into buying something she won't like is just a plain fool himself. The seller simply has no positive way of determining if a melon is sweet or not.

Now it's beginning to look as if the great gamble is going to be eliminated. The Maryland Department of Markets has been testing cantaloupes for their sugar content. By scientific means the testers sampled the melons and labeled them as "fancy," "choice," or "good."

We hope the plan works. We're not going to come out against sniffing and pressing cantaloupes. Label or not, you ladies are going to do that anyway. Right?

WAR OF NERVES

They say it's a "war of nerves" that the Soviet and Yugoslavia are waging and as long as it stays that way there is no great reason for concern. Of course the possibility always exists that some incident will touch off the guns but it is doubtful that either nation wants actual conflict.

Their reasons, however, are not identical. In the case of the Yugoslavs it is a matter of caution and self-preservation. They know that they lack the forces to stand up successfully against the Soviet's enormous and well-trained army. The result of war for them would not only be complete defeat but the very subjection to Moscow rule which they are trying to avoid. It would be the end of even the shadow of national independence.

The Russians must move slowly because military attack on their part would destroy the pretense, elaborately built up by communist propaganda, that the Soviet is the one country in the world that is genuinely interested in promoting peace. It would cut all the ground from under the feet of Stalin and Vichinsky and of the Wallaces, Robesons, and other pro-Russians in the United States.

So there is at least a basis for hoping that the Balkan controversy will not reach the final and deadly phase. If it does the consequences for the rest of Europe and for America, too, could become tragic in the extreme.

ST. ANN'S TO HOLD A SCRIMMAGE AT FORT MONMOUTH

The St. Ann's A. A. football team will hold an important scrimmage with the Fort Monmouth eleven Sunday afternoon at Fort Monmouth. Football players are requested to report at the clubhouse, Wood street, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Coach Dominick Sagolla and his assistant, Joe Roe, have been drilling the St. Ann's candidates for the past three weeks and believe that the lads are in condition for a real hard scrimmage which the soldiers intend to furnish.

During the past week, Assistant Coach Roe has been handling the backfield, using the "T" formation. It is now believed that in some games, the Purple and Gold will use the "T" while in others, the single wing back will be used.

Coach Roe in his handling of teams for the past few years has always used the "T" formation and the "Saints" have one of the best ball handlers for this formation in Joe Elmer. Coach Sagolla, who also coaches at Council Rock High School, is an expert with the single-wing formation.

The "Saints" open their Northeast Conference League games on September 25th. Their opponents will be the Olney Vets. It was previously announced that Ditman A. A. would be the opposing team but according to Athletic Director John Scordia, this has been changed.

In the meantime, the St. Ann's management is attempting to arrange an independent game for Sunday, September 18th.

The Wood Streeters will play their home games on Memorial Park field.

tasty and unusual dishes" says Mrs. Thompson who remembers with pleasure the dancing of the Geisha girls to oriental music. She attended one ceremonial tea during her stay.

As far as recreation was concerned, the Thompsons report that fine hotels of Japan provided rest places for occupation troops; and entertainment available includes golfing on excellent courses, swimming at large and modern pools, saddle trips from various riding schools, etc., grown in this manner, added to the variety in diet.

The Thompsons, although located at Tokyo, on the island of Honshu (the largest of the four islands making up Japan), found time to visit Kyushu also. The four islands could all be placed in the state of California, they remind, but population is about 90,000,000. It is easy to see why land is at a premium and this fact impresses all visitors. To make use of every available spot, many hillsides and mountainsides are terraced to bring in the largest possible crops. However, with the land not of sufficient area to provide sustenance for the populace, much of the food is imported. "Japan is beautiful and fascinating" commented Mrs. Thompson as she mentioned the inland seas, the coastlines, and the mountainous areas. She was privileged to attend a cherry blossom festival held in one of the gardens of the emperor at a distance from the palace. There ancient Bakku dances were performed by men dressed in elaborate costumes of brocades and cloth of gold. This performance, to orchestra accompaniment, continued for two hours. The visitor to the Orient also witnessed several Kabuki plays—a traditional form of Japanese entertainment upon arrival at a Japanese New Year's feast 12 women in the party were provided with kimonos and obis to wear for the duration of the function. Courses were numerous, and were served at individual tables. "I liked the public notice that at its meeting Monday evening council will consider the adoption of the ordinance. "The ordinance is designed to promote the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the borough, according to council, and "the ordinance proposes to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories and size of buildings and other structures; their construction, alteration, extension, repair, and maintenance; and all facilities and services in and about such buildings and structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied; the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces; the density of population; and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence and other purposes. The ordinance also proposes to establish and maintain building lines and setback building lines on all public roads and highways and to provide for division of the Borough into certain districts and for uniform regulations for each class or kind of buildings throughout each district."

A trip to Hiroshima revealed that rapid progress is being made in the re-building of homes—these being of the bungalow type, frame construction with tile roofs. "Not much of the devastation is noticeable now" she adds. "The Japanese appear to be leaning toward Christianity and democracy. They are becoming quite westernized in their dress, and enjoy American motion pictures thoroughly. Their oil paintings, water colors, wood prints with intricate design, weaving, etc., are a marvel to behold."

Mrs. Thompson made the trip from Seattle to Japan by ship when she joined her husband there; and the two returned by ship to San Francisco. Leaving the train at Flint, Mich., they secured a new automobile and drove in that to Pennsylvania.

It is not necessary that boys and girls deposit money each week, though regular saving is definitely encouraged. When an amount of $10 has been deposited a regular bank book is issued and money begins drawing interest; preceding this deposits are recorded by means of punched cards, one of which is kept in the bank at all times, and the other used in the school for recording of deposits. Each depositor is obligated to witness the teacher record the deposit he makes on a deposit summary sheet and on the white card punched by the bank. At any time that a parent wishes to know the total amount his boy or girl has deposited he may request a homeroom teacher to send home such form, but the cards are kept in the school to facilitate the whole banking system.

Withdrawal may be made only on exceptional occasions or when a pupil withdraws from Bristol Township School District. Any withdrawal must be signed by the parent or guardian and a designated school authority.

A chart showing the number of depositors in each homeroom will be displayed in the corridor of the school. Also on the day following banking, there will be distributed in the school a table showing percentage of depositors for each room and total amount deposited in the entire school. From this, a comparison of interest in the thrift by homeroom may be made.

The homeroom having the highest percentage of depositors on the first banking day will have the honor of selecting the boy or girl, the school responsible for marking and distributing all charts and tables.

Last year in the few weeks of organized banking in the school more than 30% of the school population had become depositors, and about $1,000 had been saved. It is the hope of the school that the number of depositors may be more than doubled next Tuesday when banking begins for this school year, and that the home and school through

The tank truck of the Atlantic Refining Company, from which gasoline was being transferred to the States bulk tank when the explosion occurred, was the object of much interest, not only of officials, but of countless residents of lower Bucks County who drove to the place throughout the afternoon and evening. Half of the truck was melted away. Julian Bley, Bristol, driver of the truck, escaped injury, being enroute to the office nearby when the blast occurred, shooting flames into the air and filling the area with dense, black smoke. SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

By JOE ELBRESON

Meeting . . . members of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will meet next Tuesday evening, September 13, at 8 o'clock, at the American Legion Post Home, Radcliffe street. It will be a business session with emphasis on completion of plans for the Association's annual outing which is scheduled for September 25. All interested sportsmen have a cordial invitation to attend the meeting.

Lots of fish . . . nine of us landed 200 sea bass, blue fish and flounder when we fished the bay out of Beach Haven Terrace later trolling and bottom fishing outside last Sunday.

The above statement is absolutely correct, but it loses its punch when it is amplified. Here is the breakdown: 197 bass (from 3 to 16 inches in length); 2 blues; and 1 flounder.

It was, however, a wonderful trip—bright sunshine, a calm bay, just slight swells outside, and plenty of fellowship and fun.

The "number one" amateur in the party, Paul Brown, took the ship's pool with the flounder. This was one of the four fish he landed all day.

Honors for the most fish caught went to Mrs. Ralph Ratcliffe, only feminine angler aboard. And in spite of the fact that she was gracious enough to allow all the men to start fishing before she cast her line over, she still caught the first fish!

We all shared in an unusual experience when a nearby boat spotted and killed a huge tropical sunfish. Its weight was estimated at more than 300 pounds.

In our party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ratcliffe, Arthur Hornberger, Harry Ratcliffe (our skipper), Ray Elberson, John Johnson and his son Russell, and Paul Brown.

Notes . . . only eight clubs were represented when the September meeting of the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs was held in Doylestown Monday evening (Labor Day).

Routine business and short committee reports consumed most of the meeting time. . . .

The Federation agreed to appeal to the Department of Forests and Waters for continued maintenance and improvement to the Canal from Easton to Bristol. . . .

The following clubs were represented: Bristol, Bucks County, Conestoga, Edgely, Erwinna, New Hope, Paletown and Springtown.

Recapitulation . . . here is the final report on the distribution of the pheasants raised this year for the Bristol and Edgely clubs:

There was a total of 168 birds (84 to Bristol and 84 to Edgely) which were released on August 28. All birds were in very fine condition. All were released on open hunting territory in Bensalem and Bristol Townships. Ratio of sex was approximately 4 cocks to three hens.

Good hunting . . . Missouri sportsmen bagged 2,900,272 quail, 4,056 rabbits and 2,292,419 squirrels last year. That's a lot of shooting.

Unique hunting . . . Joe Haines, Edgely big game hunter, who recently returned from a trip to Wellsboro, Pa., called my attention to a news story which appeared in a newspaper of that community, "The Wellsboro Agitator," concerning rattlesnake hunting.

It appears that two local banks in that town instituted a bounty program of $1.00 per rattlesnake for all rattlers killed in Tioga County. The idea apparently took hold at once for up to the end of August a total of 971 rattlesnakes were killed in that county.

One man is far ahead of the hunters for the most killed with a total of 226 rattlers to his credit. His closest competitor, according to the news story, has a total of 107. Largest snake killed so far is a 59-inch black rattlesnake.

Certainly this type of hunting is unusual and it must be quite a thrill to go out and get a bag full of rattlesnakes. Personally, however, upland game shooting appeals to me more.

Meeting . . . the Newportville Rod & Gun Club will meet Monday, September 12, at 7:30 p. m., in the club house, Haunted Lane, Eddington. Sport movies are scheduled and members are invited to bring their friends.

CROWD WATCHES HIGH SCHOOL GRID TEAM PRACTICE

A large crowd was on hand at the Bristol High school last night to watch the 1949 edition of the Warriors' football team go through a two-hour practice session.

Coaches Harry McElister and Jerry Bloom used up most of the time for the running of plays and defensive work. The boys really worked in earnest and were tackling viciously. "Bill" Moll and "Al" Daniel made several nice runs during the practice session while there was also some sensible blocking exhibited.

The first casualty of the season took place before the scrimmage when George Wren made a quick turn to avoid striking the fence and in the meantime his foot was caught. It is believed that in making his turn, Wren pulled a muscle in his side. He was taken to the office of Dr. Vincent Romano for treatment.

Bristol has just one more week of practice before opening its season at Hatboro next Saturday. On Friday night, September 23rd, the Bristol team meets Trenton Catholic under the lights on the home field.

FRANKLIN TO PLAY SECOND WARD TEAM

The second game of the final playoffs of the Bristol Suburban Softball League between Franklin A. C. and Second Ward will be played this evening on Memorial Park field starting at six o'clock.

The Franklin team blanked Second Ward, 4-0, to capture the first title and if successful in winning the mound as Gerome is nursing a wounded hand which he cut at his place of employment.

There will be no change in the remainder of the lineups. Franklin will start Frank Barbetta, Fred Field, Art Massi, "Toby" Oriola, Bert Barbetta, Capello, Tom Kerrick, William Wallick, and Fred Ciotti with Second Ward starting Gene Mount, Sam Sottile, Gene Barbetta, Tony Palumbo, "Jim" Sottile, Cornelius Chichiletti, Michael Angelo, Frank Sagolla, and Leo Fiorelli.
